WEST REGENT RIG STRIKES OIL

Oil Leases Change Hands

When the West Regent rig ceased operations for the winter months, last week, the head of the Company, Jas Dumma, announced to the oil men down in Calgary that oil had been struck at the local well and exhibited the samples secured in the Monitor field.

On the first indications of oil the drilling was stopped so as to allow enough oil to accumulate and several bottle-fulls were obtained. This information was kept a secret until the oil was handed over to Mr. Dumma and analysis made, however the News was not far out in its write-up of Nov. 3rd when it published the rumor of the oil strike.

It will take but a short time, when Spring comes, for the West Regent to reach the depth at which they expect a big flow. Last month four thousand acres of oil leases changed hands and the new owners intend drilling next Spring, having plenty of capital. These leases are south of Monitor and include the Mud Holes. The appearance of this strong Co. in the Monitor field will have a great bearing on the local situation.

The Record Oil Co.'s rig is the only one working at the present time and they intend drilling throughout the winter.

The Union Oil Co. has been taken over by the Dutch Shell Oil Co., one of the largest oil concerns in the world. The well half a mile east of town is owned by the Union Co.

A Time For Courage

There is no disguising the fact that conditions throughout the Western Provinces of Canada are not, at the present time, very encouraging and many people are faced with a difficult winter and some hardship. In this respect the Canadian Prairie Provinces are not so very different from other parts of the Dominion and other countries throughout the world. There is, however, no real reason why the people of the West should lose heart and indulge in blue ruin pessimistic talk. Such an attitude will not help, but will rather operate to further hinder a return to better times and conditions.

Present conditions in the West are bound to be of a temporary character and no country in the world is capable of more rapid recovery than the Canadian Prairie West. One misfortune and untoward occurrence after another played havoc with agricultural production and marketing this year, and while it may be hard for many families to maintain themselves this winter, their condition will be no worse, and in the vast majority of cases very much better, than the early pioneers of this country and of Ontario and the Western States had to bear. Yet these earlier pioneers held on, revealing a determination and courage which in due course brought its reward, and thousands of them are today enjoying wealth or a secure and comfortable livelihood. Yet they experienced harder and apparently more hopeless conditions than those with which the people of today are confronted.

The next few months call for the exercise of certain qualities by all people. First and foremost, there must be individual courage, determination and energy; the putting forth of every possible effort to meet and overcome adverse conditions; an insistent turning away from the dark side of the picture and a constant hunt for the silver lining and contemplation of all the brighter and more hopeful features of the situation. Secondly, there is need for the development of a spirit of helpfulness, even to the extent of personal sacrifice, in order that the more fortunately placed ones will rally to the assistance of the less fortunate. In a word, these more difficult times should develop a strong community spirit of helpfulness and co-operation.

While nobody ever welcomes adversity, it must be remembered that it is in that hard school that really strong men and women are developed. When everything in life moves smoothly, without any great difficulty or obstacle in the way, the individual becomes soft, loses initiative, becomes weak and lacking in character. It is the struggle to overcome, to achieve, to win, that makes real men and creates strong characters. The man who, overwhelmed by adversity, lies down, is a failure and would ultimately prove a failure even under normal and less trying conditions. But "the man who while is the man who can smile when everything goes dark wrong." And he is the man who will triumph in the end, and in the more successful and brighter days to come will look back with grim satisfaction and a deep joy to the dark days in which he struggled and achieved, and won not only worldly success, but strength of character to meet whatever life might bring to him.

Governor-General Given Degree

Lord Byng Honored By University at Toronto

The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Lord Byng, governor-general of Canada, by the University of Toronto. Following the ceremony, Lord Byng expressed appreciation of the honor and said that in the universities of Canada more than in any other place, were to be found all that was best and most inspiring in the rising generation.

Civilization and modern social needs, Lord Byng said, had advanced past the time when faith and a strong arm were all that was required of a man. He emphasized the importance of science and declared he believed the present horrors of war were due quite as much from the disappearance of the brain worker in control as from any other cause.

Money Not Saved

Figures Show That Americans Do Not

Heard Money
A Washington statistician reports that as against $18,000,000 the country spent for the army $750,000,000 has gone on candy and chewing gum. Sweetens the discontent with military expenditures, does it not?

And $834,000,000 for soda and other soft drinks and $900,000,000 for perfume, jewelry, silk stockings and kindred luxuries. And the pin money pleasantly expended on theatres, concerts and baseball was $897,000,000. And, above all, the tribute to My Lady Nicotine cost her devotees $1,157,000,000.

Doubtless these figures tend to prove something, one knows not what. They certainly show that Americans are not excessive hoarders and ought to bring a little more sense of proportion to indignant taxpayers. It is not fair to assume that people are unduly self-indulgent. Yet it does make one dizzy to think of a billion gone up in smoke—the smoke of the battlefields, however.—New York Tribune.

Toe Walking Develops Strength

Walking on the heel is the attitude of civilized man alone. The people of the woods, who are much superior in their muscular development, all walk on the toes as do the lower animals. Taking this suggestion, a French doctor is prescribing a course of toe walking for patients who are deficient in chest development.

THE CAUSE OF BACKACHE

Only in Rare Cases Does Backache Mean Kidney Trouble

Every muscle in the body needs constantly a supply of rich red blood in proportion to the work it does. The muscles of the back are under a heavy strain and have but little rest. When the blood is thin they lack nourishment, and the result is a sensation of pain in those muscles. Some people think pain in the back means kidney trouble, but the best medical authorities agree that backache seldom or never has anything to do with the kidneys. Organic kidney disease may have progressed to a critical point without developing a pain in the back. This being the case, pain in the back should always lead the sufferer to look to the condition of his blood. It will be found in most cases that the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood will stop the sensation of pain in the ill-nourished muscles of the back. How much better it is to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the blood than to give way to unreasonable alarm about your kidneys. If you suspect your kidneys, a good doctor can make tests in ten minutes that will set your fears at rest, or tell you the worst. But in any event to be perfectly healthy you must keep the blood in good condition, and for this purpose no other medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Making a Speech

A Scottish minister was once asked how long he would require to prepare a speech. "That depends," he said, "upon how much time I am to occupy in its delivery. If I am to speak for a quarter of an hour I should like a week to prepare; if I am to speak for half an hour, three days will do; if I am to go on as long as I like, I am ready now."—Belfast Weekly News.

"You don't say? Well, see and make him go through with the expenses. If I was travelling for Jack Harris I wouldn't be sleeping in a hen-coop like this. He's worth yards of money, ain't he?"

"Oh, some, I guess, but perhaps not so much more'n his neighbours." "Nothing personal, Riles. You've got to get over that narrowness. If you're going to get into the bigger game. I've been telling you about. I don't care how much you're worth—how much is Harris bringing with him?"

"Couple of hundred dollars, likely." "I wouldn't show my hand for that. How much can he raise?"

"Well, supposin' he sold the old farm—"

"Now don't do any reckless supposing. Will he sell it if he sees something better?"

"How much can he get for it?"

"Thirty or forty thousand dollars." "That's more like a stake. Hiram, it's up to you and me to show him something better and to show it to him when he's alone. You're tired to-night. Sleep it out, and we'll drive over to the ranch to-morrow together. We ought to pick something better than a homestead out of this."

CHAPTER XIII. Setting the Trap

Notwithstanding the exhaustion occasioned by his journey Riles was early about. The hotel bed was strange to him, and the noises that

Backache

Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes and overlook the derangement of the kidneys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief.

This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven so effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use.

Mrs. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good results. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am completely relieved."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

floated up from the bar-room interrupted his slumbers. At least, he told himself it was the noises, but the fact is a great new thought had been sown in his brain, and had the cells whirled in crazy speculation. The unexpected meeting with Gardiner, the latter's evident prosperity, and his frank contempt for men who made their living by speculation, had left a deep impression upon Riles. He had no idea by what means Gardiner proposed that they should possess themselves of Harris' money, and he felt some doubt about any such attempt being rewarded with success. Nevertheless, Gardiner seemed to think the matter a simple one enough, and Gardiner's good clothes and good cigars were evidence of his ability to carry his plans into effect.

The streets had not yet assumed their morning activity when Riles emerged from the hotel, but the unclouded Alberta sunshine was bathing every atom of out-of-doors in a warmth and brilliance that might have found, and in very truth did find, a keen response in the inmates of the objects of its affection. The jubilant laughing of running mountain water rippled through the quiet air, fragrant with the perfume of balsam of cedar and balsam; to the eastward the sunshine poured into broad valleys and undulating, sweeping plains, and in the west the great mountains, clad in their eternal robes of white, loomed silent and impressive in their majesty. Even Riles stopped to look at them, and they stirred in him an emotion that was not altogether profane—a faint, undefined consciousness of the puniness of man and the night of his Creator. No one can live for long in the presence of the mountains without that consciousness, and it is when he learns to distinguish between the puniness of man, the and the infinity of man, the thinking soul.

Riles breakfasted as soon as the dining-room was opened, eating his meal hurriedly, as he always did, albeit the French-fried potatoes, to which he was unaccustomed, could be poised on his knife only with considerable effort. When he sat down in an arm-chair on the shady side of the hotel to wait for Gardiner. He had suddenly lost his interest in the free land which had been the purpose of his journey.

His wait was longer than he had expected, and he broke it several times by strolls about the little town in size of much the same as Plainville, but that was the chief point of resemblance. True, it had its typical stores selling everything from silk to coal oil; its blacksmiths' shops, ringing with the hammer of the busy smith on ploughshare or horseshoe; its lumber agencies, with rows of gaudily-painted wagons, mowers and binders obstructing the thoroughfare; and the new and old buildings of new binders floating from the hot recess of their iron-covered storehouses; a couple of banks, occupying the best corner, and baker shops and poolrooms in apparent excess of the needs of the population. All these he might have found in Plainville, but there were here in addition half-a-dozen real-estate dealers, locators, commission-splitters and go-betweens, and the number and size of the livery stables gave some clue to the amount of prospecting going on from this base of supplies. The streets were lined with traffic. Riles estimated that in two hours as many teams passed him as might be seen in Plainville in a week; long rows of boxcars were unloading on the side tracks; farmers' effects and household goods of every description were piled in great heaps about the railway yards; while horses, cattle, pigs and poultry contributed to the dust and din of the settlers' operations. Great wagons of lumber were being loaded at the lumber yards, and an unbroken procession of wagons and farm machinery of every description was winding its way slowly into the distance where lay hope of home or fortune for the new settler.

It was almost noon when Gardiner appeared on the scene. "You don't hurt yourself in the mornin's," was Riles' greeting.

"Don't need to," he answered cheerily. "Besides, I'd a long session after I left you last night. No, no particulars at present. I told you you had spoiled your hands for that kind of work. How'd ye like this air? Isn't that something worth breathin'?"

"Good enough," said Riles, "but I didn't come out here for air."

"No, you came for land. I'm surprised you're not out bouning over the prairie in a buckboard long before this."

Riles shot a quick glance at Gardiner. But he was puffing a cigar and drinking in the warm sunshine with obvious satisfaction. "So I might of been, but I thought we kind of made a date last night, didn't we?"

"Did we? Oh yes, now I remember. But I thought perhaps you'd feel different about it in the mornin'. A man generally does. I don't hold you to anything you said last night, Riles."

Riles could not recall that he had said anything that committed him in any way, but Gardiner's tone implied that plainly enough.

"I ain't changed my mind," he said, "but I don't know's I said anything blidin', did I? I thought we was goin' to drive out to your place to-day an' talk things over."

"Well, I just didn't want you to lose any time over me if you thought things wouldn't work out," said Gardiner. "It takes more nerve, you know, than hoeing potatoes. But you're welcome to the hospitality of the ranch, in any case. I came in on horseback, so we'll get a team at one of the stables and drive out."

In a short time they were on their way. The road skirted the river, threading its way through the narrow belt of cotton-woods and evergreens that found footing in the moist soil of the valley. Here and there, through an opening in the trees, or across a broad wedge of prairie, could be seen the mountains, now bathed in a faint purple, silently receding before them. A soft breeze, neither hot nor cold, but moist and fresh from the great table-lands of snow, pressed gently about the travellers, but their thoughts were of neither the scenery nor the weather.

"It's all right, Riles," Gardiner was saying. "If you're prepared to stay with the deal we can pull it through—no doubt about that. That is, if Harris will sell his farm and come out here with the cash in his jeans. If he won't do that, you better get busy on your homesteaded proposition right away."

"Harris do it all right, if he sees something worth while. But Harris's no spring chicken, an' you'll have to show him something if his likin' for me loosens."

"I don't care whether he loosens up or not," said Gardiner. "All I care is that he brings the money. He'll get it in bills. No cheques, mind you. Get him out here with the cash on him, and I'll do the loosening up. If it comes to that, I'll be in."

Riles was somewhat alarmed at the sinister turn of the conversation. He had no compunction about getting the better of his old neighbour, the man who had entrusted him with the discharge of their joint commission, but he had considerable respect for the force, if not the principle, of the law. "You don't mean that you'd do anythin'—anythin' that wasn't right?" he said. "I wouldn't want to get mixed up in no scrape, y' know."

"You mean that you think more of your skin than you do of Harris's coin. Well, there's no accounting for tastes. But as for doing anything wrong—you ought to know me better than that. It will be clean and above board, and no violence if it can be helped. But if Harris is an unfortunate nobody's to blame for that. Of course, if you're afraid to take a sportsman's chance for a half of forty thousand dollars, call the deal off. I've got lots of other fish to fry."

"You don't understand," said Riles. "I ain't scared, but I don't want to do nothin' that'll get us into trouble. Harris is an old neighbour o' mine an'—"

"I understand perfectly. You wouldn't mind a piece of Harris's money served on a platter and wrapped in tissue paper, but you want somebody else to take the chances. Now, there won't be any chance to speak of, but what there are you take your share. If that's a bargain it's a bargain, and if it isn't we'll talk about the weather. What'd you say?"

"It's a bargain," said Riles, "provided your plan'll work out."

"It's got to work out. It's like going up in a balloon—if it doesn't work out it's all off with the engineer. You

Theo. Baker Says It Beats Anything He's Ever Seen In His Life

"The way Tanlac has helped me is one of the greatest surprises of my life," said Theo. L. Baker, 405 Qu'Appelle Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

"My health was bad for two years. I had a terrible case of stomach trouble and could hardly eat and digest anything. My food hurt me so bad I often thought I just could not stand it, and nearly all the time I was in misery and distress on account of gas on my stomach which bloated me up tight as a drum. I was nervous and restless at night, and always seemed to be tired and worn out.

"Well, I was getting pretty weak when I got Tanlac, but it wasn't long until I was feeling better. Six bottles of Tanlac have made me feel like a brand new man. My stomach is in the best of shape, nothing I eat hurts me and I've gained several pounds in weight. All my lost strength has returned, I sleep like a log and feel good all the time. Tanlac is certainly the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

There are nearly 600 sulphur mines on the island of Sicily.

Britain's Safest Policy Is Making Investments Within The Empire

London.—Winston Spencer Churchill, colonial secretary, in a speech in London, said that if Great Britain was able only to look to the east and the west her position would be unhappy, but in the great dominions she had outlets for her energy with objects deserving financial support, and with great potentialities for development.

Before British investors cast money upon strange shores let them, he said, be quite sure there was not in the British Empire a more certain means of securing swift and certain returns. In future they would need to draw more from imperial resources and as the years passed this process would conduce to the greater strengthening of the British position. They were well advised to repose themselves confidently on the board security of the Empire. If that failed there would be little use in any part of the world. If it stood, the money invested in the great overseas dominions would return bringing with it means for future enterprise. If they had patience, courage and wisdom, the dark days would pass and they would live to see the dawn of another era as splendid, peaceful and prosperous as that in which their fathers and grandfathers were fortunate enough to live.

DO YOU SMOKE TOO MUCH?

There are many men on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath and loss of sleep.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco.

Mr. Frank Lutes, 71 Terrace Hill St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled with palpitation of the heart for a number of years, and by spells it would bother me a lot. The doctor told me it would stop on me sometime if I did not cut out tobacco. When I would get a spell my heart would pound, and I would break out in a perspiration, and get so weak I would have to sit right down and quit my work; also in the night I would wake up and my heart would be going. I should say, about 120 beats a minute. About three years ago I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, took them, and found that they did the job. I am feeling fine and have gained over 20 pounds in weight."

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Teacher Fined For Flogging Scholar

Boy Was Excessively Punished For Telling Untruth

Hamilton, Ont.—Because Miss F. Cuthbert, a school teacher, strapped Sydney Painting, a pupil in her class, she was fined $10 and costs in police court. The magistrate said that the punishment administered was "a barbarous way of assaulting a boy and never should be used."

"One or two strokes would have been sufficient," declared the magistrate, "and I find that the boy has been excessively punished."

The boy testified that the teacher struck him 15 times for telling an untruth.

Sweepstakes Captured By Grain Grown From Saskatchewan Samples

Portuguese Threatened By Bolshevism

Spreading Through Large Towns and Conditions Are Serious

London.—The powers are considering intervention in Portugal and the assumption of a mandate there to quell the "ugly wave of Bolshevism" which is sweeping that country, the Times declares. France, Italy and Spain, it says, favor such a move. Former upheavals in Portugal arose from the rivalry of political parties, but Bolshevism is now spreading through the large towns, the Times declares, and there have been many outrages, especially in the Province of Alentejo.

The recent bombing of the United States consulate in Lisbon was an incident in this movement, it is said, and most of the foreign diplomats there have received letters threatening their lives.

When a number of foreign warships moored in the Tagus River at Lisbon recently, the sailors on a Portuguese gunboat are said to have been restrained only with difficulty from attempting to torpedo the Spanish vessels.

Despatches to the Times assert that the condition of the country is such that it has been very difficult to find men willing to accept posts in the cabinet.

Steamer Makes Official Trip

Victoria.—The new C.P.R. steamer, Princess Louise, built by the Wallace Shipyards, North Vancouver, has made her official trial trip.

The speed requirements of 16 knots called for by the contract stipulations, were more than satisfied at all stages. On three trials the vessel averaged 16.2, 16.9 and 17 knots.

Chicago.—Canadian honors did not suffer in the judging arena at the International Livestock Exposition when the Clydesdales were exhibited, but the Dominion lost a coveted championship in the grain and hay show when the wheat sweepstakes went to a Montana farmer after the crown of champion wheat grower has rested on the head of J. C. Mitchell, of Dandina, a well-known Saskatchewan grain grower, for two years.

Wee Donald, a Clydesdale stallion of over seven years of age, exhibited by C. A. Weaver, of Regina, won the stallion championship, and First Principal, entered by the Manitoba Department of Agriculture, was the reserve senior champion. The two Canadian horses were in perfect condition for the fight in the arena, and had little trouble in besting the other senior stallions for the honors. Several firsts and many other prizes were conferred upon Canadian horses in the various classes during the day.

Canada's only comfort in the loss of the wheat growing championship to George Kraft, of Bozeman, Mont., is that Mr. Kraft's wheat was grown from samples secured from Dr. Seager Wheeler, of Saskatchewan, the Canadian wheat wizard, and Dr. Wheeler is certain to share in the honor of producing such a marvellous brand of improved Marquis. Mr. Mitchell's wheat weighed 64.7 pounds to the bushel, while Kraft's wheat was but 63.6 pounds, but Mitchell's was duller in color and the kernels smaller. Mr. Mitchell was the champion in 1919 and 1920, and was given the secondary honors this year.

PUBLIC LARGELY TO BLAME

Delayed or Misdelayed
Mail Matter

Whenever delay to, or mis-delivery of, a letter occurs, the sender or the addressee is prone to adversely criticize the Post Office. Frequently, however, the delay or misdelivery is due to the carelessness of the public, in failing to properly address the mail matter in question.

During three days this month 128,300 pieces of incorrectly and insufficiently addressed mail matter were handled at 55 of the larger Post Offices. This is a daily average of 42,800 for the 55 offices, or at the rate of 16,000,000 for a year of 365 days.
Think of the number of postal clerks engaged in handling this misdelayed mail, who could, if the general public were more careful, be used to give better service in other lines!

Much trouble is due to careless writing, to the use of a pencil in writing the address, and to failure to give the proper street address or to keep mailing lists up to date.

With the Christmas season at hand, bringing immense quantities of mail to be dealt with, it will be necessary that

World Happenings Briefly Told

A war memorial to the inhabitants of Theux collapsed two days after it was unveiled in Paris. Two were killed and one was injured.

The national debt has passed a law imposing a tax of eight per cent. on interest from investments by foreigners in Finland.

Grandfather clock of solid walnut with Westminster chimes on eight rods, came all the way from Europe to London, Ont., and is to be sold at $385. It stands seven feet high.

T. A. Stewart died at St. Luke's Home, Vancouver, aged 63. He was one of the engineers on the construction of the Canadian Pacific main line through the west; a veteran of the Riel rebellion and the South African war. He had lived in British Columbia for 30 years.

"Action by Congress within a year," has become the slogan of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence-Tidewater Association, the parent body of those who are working for the improvement of the St. Lawrence River, so as to admit ocean-going commerce to the Great Lakes.

A contract for a floating drydock at Vancouver has been awarded to the Burrard Drydock Company of that city, according to the Ottawa Citizen. The company is to receive an annual subsidy of 4 per cent. on $2,500,000 for a period of 35 years, or approximately $112,000 per year; the paper stated.

Frustrated in their attempt to rob the Orpheum Theatre, Minneapolis, four robbers returned to within a block of that place and robbed the Pantagraph Theatre of $3,400. Patrolman John Moe, who frightened the bandits away from the Orpheum was shot and seriously wounded by them as they fled.

THIS WOMAN'S RECOVERY

Shows Remarkable Restorative Power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chealey, Ont.—"Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. Finally I got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up the steps. I tried two doctors but they did me no good. I saw your medicine advertised in the newspapers and thought I would give it a trial. I took four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and was restored to health. I am married, am the mother of two children, and do all my housework, milk eight cows, and do a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found Vegetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all my friends who are in need of medicine, and you may print this letter if you wish." Mrs. HENRY JANKER, R. R. No. 4, Chealey, Ontario.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Success Or Failure

Things Worth While Require Time and Hard Work

He is usually considered a failure who attempts something and does not succeed.

But on considering the subject, does it not seem fair to include among the ranks of the failures those who obtain the privileges of success without performing the duties of which they should be the reward?

Too many, in these get-rich-quick days, demand immediate success, easy success. The past teaches us that what is to be easily obtained is prized but little if at all, and also that the things worth while are not won in a minute nor by feeble effort.

Do you desire the privileges of success? Perform faithfully your duties. Do you desire the pleasures of achievement? You must suffer its pains.

Would you gather the fruits of success? You must perform the labor of planting and tending.—By Jack Mills.

LINIMENTS WON'T RELIEVE PAIN BETWEEN THE EYES

That pain is not rheumatism or neuralgia. Many folks think so—it is due to Catarrh, plain ordinary Catarrh and needs attention right now. Catarrh is the name of a wonderful invention that is daily bringing chronic cases of weak throat, bronchitis and catarrh. Every breath through the inhaler is laden with soothing, healing substances that destroy all diseased conditions in the breathing organs. It can't fail to help, because it cures where the trouble really exists—and doesn't attempt to cure an illness in the head or throat by means of medicine taken into the stomach. There is no suffering from a grippy cold or any winter ill that won't find benefit in Catarrh. It is employed by Physicians, ministers, lawyers and public men throughout many foreign lands. Large size lasts two months and costs $1.00. Small size 50c, sample size 25c. All storekeepers or the Catarrh Co., Montreal.

Why Not?

Boatman—"No, mister, I can't let you have a boat now. There's a heavy swell just come on."

Professor—"Swell be hanged; ain't my money as good as is?"—Pearson's Weekly.

WOULD NOT BE WITHOUT BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she would not be without them. The Tablets are a perfect home remedy. They regulate the bowels and stomach; drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever; make baby healthy and happy. Concerning them, Mrs. Noble A. Pye, Ecum Secum, N.S., writes—"I have found Baby's Own Tablets of great benefit for my children and I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c each a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Direct Wireless From Australia to England

Premier Hughes Has Announced Details of Proposed Scheme

Premier Wm. Hughes has submitted to the Australian House of Representatives the details of the proposed direct wireless scheme between Australia and the United Kingdom, according to a cable from Reuters' Melbourne correspondent. The Commonwealth and the Amalgamated Wireless Company will jointly become responsible for financing the scheme, the premier stated, and the Commonwealth will secure the controlling interest.

The Commonwealth and Amalgamated Company will forthwith construct high-power station to carry a direct commercial service between Australia, the United Kingdom and Canada, according to the agreement. The main trunk stations are to be erected within two years. The rates generally will be two-thirds of the existing cable charges.

Premier Hughes, in submitting the scheme to the house, added that it was an alternative to the link scheme submitted at the Imperial Conference. The cable message adds that there is little doubt that the proposed agreement will be accepted by the Australian Government.

New Use For Warships

One Serves As Fish-Drying Factory at Port Etienne

M. Albert Sarraut, French Minister for the Colonies, who is now at the Washington Conference, may be able, if consulted, to give useful hints as to what to do with the old battleships. Just before he sailed for America he made a tour of the French West African colonies, and at Port Etienne he visited former French cruiser Chassecloup Loubat, which now serves as a useful purpose. Riding at anchor in the bay, it serves as a fish-drying factory. On its decks sixty tons of fish can be dried at one time. Port Etienne is the centre of a steadily growing dried fish industry and to the Chassecloup Loubat all fishing boats bring the cargoes to be cured and dried.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly induced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Potent and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.

The Dutch regard a stork's nest on their houses as a sign of good fortune.

An Oil of Merit.—Dr. Thomas Eleele Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the curative qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

A Handsome Cape With This Dress

By Marie Belmont

Many of the new frocks are accompanied by capes which are fashioned so that, if desired, they may be worn with other clothes. This dress is made of green Canton crepe which is fashioned on simple lines. The skirt is elaborated with black stitching, while the roll collar is cut from black satin that matches the cuffs of the dress. The cape is of black velvet lined with green Canton crepe. It is trimmed with a handsome collar of black fox fur. About the outer edges of the cape's lining are several rows of black stitching that look most effective when the fronts of the cape are folded back.

THIN, FLAT HAIR

GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 25 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after 2 or 3 weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yet—really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.
